

The deposition of Frances Wycom who testifieth and saithth that quicly after the first court at salme about witchcraft. margerit Scott whom I very well knew. or her Appearance came to me and did most grievously torment <sup>me</sup> by choaking and almost pressing me to death: and so she did continue afflicting me by times till the 5th August 1692 being the day of her examination also during the time of her examination margerit Scott did most grievously afflict me: and also severall times since: and I believe in my heart that margerit Scott is a witch and that she has often afflicted me by acts of witchcraft

Frances Wycom ams. to y<sup>e</sup> grand Inquest. that y<sup>e</sup> above written evidence is y<sup>e</sup> truth upon oath. Sept<sup>r</sup> 15. 1692.

Jurat in Curia,