

The Testimonies of Mary Warren and her Son by Agnes or Elizabeth Bowyer, John Poyth, and with the Trial and Jury. Laid in by Quorons, Bench, and Jury much and Charles me almost to death: and of this and had him said a Trumpet and immediately I saw General come to him, as namely Capt. Aldinghams Case and goodly Publisher and several others and they brought me to goe along with them to their Government meeting, and Mr. Burroughs brought to me bread to eat and wine to drink, which I refused, he said, will you not forment me saying me necessarily to eat in his food: also I had been Mr. George Burroughs, or his Amos was not previously mentioned, Mary and last one Ann Putnam and I verily believe in my heart that she George Burroughs is a goodly and virtuous and that she has several fine farmhouses me and the estate and part of his wife of meadow

Mary Warren (Deland) upon her oath, to the Jury of Inquest that above written evidence is of truth. August 3. 1692

Pa. Dec. 35, 36.

Mary Warren

Deposition