

Nathaniel putnam sen<sup>r</sup> Being Desir<sup>d</sup> by Francis nurse sen<sup>r</sup> to give Inform<sup>t</sup> of what i could say concearning his wife and conversation: of the aforesayd I know this sayd aforesayd woman fou years & what i have observed of her human frailtye excepted; her life & conuersation hath been according to her profession: & she hath brought up a great family of children & educated well soe that there is in some of them apparent of godliness: i have known her differ with her neig but i neuer knew nor heard of any that did accuse of what she is now charged with