The Deposition of Ann putnam the wife of Thomas putnam aged about 30 years who testified and saith that on the 18th march 1692 I being wearied out in helping to tend my poor afflicted Child and maid: about the middle of the after-noon I layd me down on the bed to take a little rest: and immediately I was almost prest and choaked to death: that had it not been for the misery of a gracious God and the help of those that were with me: I could not have lived many moments: and presently I saw the Apparition of Martha Cory who did torment me so as I cannot express ready to take me all to peaces and I departed from ~~her~~ me a little while: but before I could recover strength of well take breath the Apparition of Martha Cory fell upon me again with dreadful tortors and hellish temptations to goe along with him and she also brought to me a little red book in his hand and a black pen urging me vehemently to writ in his book: and severall times that day she did most grievously torment me almost ready to kill me and on the 19th march: Martha Cory againe appeared to me and also Rebekah ^{nuss} the wife of frances nuss senr: and they both did torment me agrate many times this day with such tortors as no toungue can express because I would not yeald to their hellish temptations that had I not been upheld by an Almighty Arme I could not have liued while night: 20th march being sabbath day I had agrate deal of respite: between my fits: 21st march being the day of the Examination of Martha Cory: I had not many fits tho I was very weak my strength being as I thought almost gone: but on the 22nd march 1692 the Apparition of Rebekah nuss did againe sett upon in a most dreadfull maner very early in the morning as soon as it was well light and now she appeared to me only in his shift and ~~night cap~~ and brought a little red book in his hand urging me vehemently to writ in his book and because I would not yeald to his hellish temptations she threatened to take my soule out of my body: blasphemously denying the blessed God and the power of the Lord Jesus Christ to save my soule and denying severall places of scripture which told him of: to repel his hellish temptations and for near two hours together at this time the Apparition of Rebekah nuss did tempt and torment me before she left me as if indeed she would have killed me: and also the grate part of this day with out very little respite: 23rd march: I am againe afflited by the Apparitions of Rebekah nuss: and Martha Cory: but chiefly by Rebekah nuss: 24th march being the day of the Examination of Rebekah nuss: I was severall times afflited in the morning by the Apparition of Rebekah nuss: but most dreadfully tormented by him in the time of his Examination: in so much that The Honoured Magistrates gave my Husband leave to carry me out of the meeting house: and as soon as I was carryed out of the meeting house does it pleased Almighty God for his free grace and misery sake to deliver me out of the paws of those roaring lions: and jaws of those tearing Beasts that ever since that time they have not had power so to afflict me
