

The examination of Wilmer Redd 18th 3rd May 1892 Rod of marb^l fisherman

When this Examinant was brought in Mary Lewis Mary Walcott & Abigail Williams fell into fits Mary Lewis said this woman hath pinched me a great many times.

Mary Walcott said this woman brought the Book to her.

Ann Putman just said she never hurt her, but she ~~had~~ ^{she had seen} her once upon Mary Lewis & once upon Mary Walcott the last fast day. Eliz: Hubbard said this Examinant had brought the book to her, & told her she would knock her in the head, if she would not write.

Ann Putman said she brought the Book to her just now

Eliz: Booth fell into a fit, & Mary Walcott & Ann Putman said it was this woman afflicted her.

Susan: Sheldon was ordered to go to the Examinant but was knock down before she came to her, & being so carried to said Redd in a fit, was made well after said Redd had grasp'd her arm.

Eliz: Hubbard dealt with after the same manner

This Examinant was bid by the Magistrate to look upon Eliz: Hubbard, & upon the Exami-nant casting her eye upon said Hubbard, she the said Hubbard was knock down.

Abig: Williams & John Judson being carried to the Examinant in a grievous fit were made well by her grasping their arms.

This Examinant being often urged what she thought these persons ailed; would reply, I can-not tell. Then being aske if she did not think they was Bewitch'd: she answered I cannot tell And being urged for her opinion in the case

All she would say was: my opinion is they are in a fitt condition.
