

The deposition of Thomas Norman aged 53 years saith that good wile was earnest with me to buy one kind of geese ~~and~~ and his good wife wile had three geese. I lost many geese and she came to my house one day and said she loveth your ~~good wile~~ ^{good wile} went to the pen where they were fattening, and they were very fat and red ~~and~~ them a great while longer feeding them with ~~and~~ they yind away so as they were good for little and I lost six brace cattle six year ago which was frozen to death in the middle of January, now sum time this summer my wife went to salom ailing and my wife told me that an putman the afflicted parson told her that ~~good wile~~ good wile had whored away my cattle and I wondered an putman should know I lost my cattle so long ago

Jurat in Curia

[Faint, illegible handwriting, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]

[Faint signature or name at the bottom of the page.]